8 "1. Right of Referendum. If, within 60 days
9 from the date on which a bill becomes law, a petition is 10 filed with the office of the Governor to refer the law
11 to a vote of the people, the law shall be submitted to a 12 vote at the next general election. If rejected by a ma-13 jority of those voting on the question, the law shall 14 stand repealed 30 days thereafter. If the petition is 15 filed before the date on which the law is to take effect,
16 then unless the law is one passed by the affirmative vote 17 of three-fifths of all the members of each house of the 18 General Assembly, it shall not take effect until 30 days 19 after its approval by a majority of those voting on the 20 question in the election.

21 "2. Referendum Petition. A petition shall
